

Recommendations for a Riparian Biologist for the Science Committee, to be appointed by the Implementing Committee:

Elizabeth Smith: Research Scientist, Center for Coastal Studies, Texas A&M Corpus Christi

http://ccs.tamucc.edu/docs/cv\_smith\_2005aug.pdf

<http://www.savingcranes.org/dr.-liz-smith-whooping-crane-conservation-biologist.html>

Jacquelyn Duke: Lecturer in Biology, Baylor University

<http://www.baylor.edu/biology/index.php?id=68788>

David Lemke: Department of Biology, Texas State University. Interest in flora of Texas, Systematic plant anatomy, Aquatic plant biology.

<http://www.bio.txstate.edu/~dlemke/lemke.html>

Michael Huston: Department of Biology, Texas State University. Interested in ecological concepts and processes.

<http://www.bio.txstate.edu/~mhu/cv.html>

Georgianne Moore: Texas A&M University at College Station. Interested in role of vegetative management on aquatic resources.

<http://essm.tamu.edu/people-info/faculty/moore-georgianne/>

<http://essm.tamu.edu/people/gmoore/>

Dr. Bill Van Auken: Retired from UTSA, Department of Biology

<http://utsa.edu/ecology/vanauken/vanauken.htm>